President's Message

One year ago, Chris Bradley played an excellent session for NOJCNC. Last month they showed us, once again, that they are a quality band that can hold their own with the best bands in Northern California.

This band has excellent musicians. They play traditional jazz, without gimmicks, in a four-beat style in tempos that are popular with the dancers. We like Chris' accurate trumpet, and his sidemen are superb. Rich Owen, on piano, was in excellent form and added zest to the band throughout the afternoon. Perhaps because of our favorable review last year, more members came out to listen to this band. Unfortunately Chris is yet to attract an attendance at our club that is commensurate with the quality of his band. Ironically, we had many complimentary comments about the band from those in attendance. Many thanks, Chris, for a fine afternoon of traditional jazz.

Under the coordination of Rod Roberts the quality of our jam sets is improving. One measure of the success of jam sets is manifested by the number of dancers they attract. Last month we had two very good sets, thanks to: Jim Broadstreet, Jan Warmerdam and Dana Kemp on trumpet; Carol Dutcher, and Alex Newman, reeds; Paul Hilton and Bob Mielke, trombone; Rod Roberts, piano; Bruce Stangeland, Ted Shafer, Pat Campbell, John Fehd, Jim Lockie-Brown and Jean Duran on banjo; Mike Somers, bass and tuba; Henk Wagner, drums; Becky Kesweder, guitar; and Bob Sutherland on flugelhorn.

We had good participation in the raffle too. Many thanks to the raffle donors: M. Mills & D. Frolli; Barbara & Brian Matthews; Kit Pickles; Ted Shafer; Rich Frisbie; and Dottie Lawless.

We will be electing the Board for 2010 at our October Board Meeting. So this is your last opportunity to let us know if you are interested in becoming a Board member for next year. If you have any interest, or questions, please contact Rich Vose, Dottie Lawless or Pat Campbell.

Our band for October is John Soulis' Mission Gold Jazz Band. John played an excellent set for us at Showcase and we are looking forward to hearing his band at our regular session. Please make a special effort to attend.

Dottie Lawless and Rich Vose

Club Briefs

Cell Block 7 rides the rails

NOJCNC favorites Cell Block Seven Jazz Band will be the featured performers on a Dixieland-themed trip of the Reno Snow Train on March 2, 2010. The Snow Train, which makes weekly 3-day roundtrips between Emeryville to Reno from Feb. 9 through March 9, includes a rail car specifically for dancing. There is also a popular Banjo Train on Feb. 23. Fares run $235-$315 (per person, double occupancy) for the weekend, including roundtrip train ride and two nights in Reno. For more, call (800) 783-0783 or visit www.keyholidays.com.

Band portraits and publicity stills

Musicians interested in improving their band photo (and yes, some of them are really bad) should contact NOJCNC News editor Paul Hilton to make arrangements for having new photos taken. He also is willing to take individual portraits (for bands that tend to shift their line-ups frequently). All photography is free (or for gas money if travel is involved), although donations to the NOJCNC are always cheerfully accepted. Paul is a 20 year photojournalist whose photos appear regularly in the San Francisco Chronicle. Contact him at spudhilton@gmail.com.
