Presidents' Message

A special thank you to the NOJCNC's volunteers, without whom the club would not be able to function for a week, no less all year. We especially want to highlight the contributions of Robin Roberts and Jim Broadstreet, who stepped in to help revamp the membership system and bring it up to date. We appreciate your patience through this process.

The next mission, however, is bringing back some of our old friends who have drifted away, and for that we need every member to take on the job of membership. If you know someone who hasn't been around lately (especially if it's someone you run into at another club), invite them back and let them know we have some great bands coming up this year.

Big thanks also to all the musicians who volunteered their time and energy for the Annual Showcase of Bands in February. It is the club's main fundraiser during the year and we couldn't operate with their generosity. Thanks again to: And that's Jazz, Cell Block Seven, Fog City Stompers, Zinfandel Stompers and the Jelly Roll Jazz Band (this month's featured group).

And in March, Tom Barnebey's Beyond Salvation band was a treat to watch -- if only to see how the five musicians planned to divvy up and play the 23 instruments on the stage (yes, we counted). They played a solid mix of New Orleans and Chicago standards, as well as some novelty numbers, usually played in a novel way (including when 80 percent of band pulled out ukuleles).

Thanks to all who have been buying raffle tickets, as well as to those who have been supplying the prizes. It's an easy, fun way to support the club, and is making a difference in our ability to hire great bands to play monthly meetings. We're especially glad for Elvera Walker's help coordinating the raffle and Robin's ticket sales. If you'd like to volunteer to help some month, talk to one of them.

We don't have the latest information on Dottie Lawless and her ongoing health concerns, but please keep her in your thoughts and prayers in the coming months.

It would be a great help if everyone could remember to make sure they have all their belongings when they leave Champa on Sundays, either after the NOJCNC meeting or after the Joyful Noise Jazz Band gig that follows. In the past two months, we've had members (and musicians) leave personal items, from cameras to piano benches. Talk to the Champa crew or to Paul Hilton if you're still missing anything.

Tom Belmessieri & Paul Hilton,
NOJCNC co-presidents

APRIL BAND:

Ted Shafer's Jelly Roll Jazz Band

Shafer's band, which has been playing for more than half a century now, is a perennial favorite as an NOJCNC featured band. The JRJB has home-field advantage at Champa restaurant, where it plays every Friday night from 7 - 10 pm. Bring dancing shoes.
