Presidents' Message

We had a great turnout for the Annual NOJCNC Showcase of Bands in February, although that wasn't a huge surprise considering the great lineup. Please thank the members of Gold Coast Jazz Band, Port City Jazz Band, Mission Gold Jazz Band, Chris Bradley's Traditional Jazz Band and Natural Gas Jazz Band for giving of their time and talent for the Showcase. It's our big fundraiser for the year and allows us to bring you full days of these and other bands the rest of the year. (Ev Farey, Earl Sheelar and Rich Owens tied for each having been in two bands during the day, although the tie-breaker might have to go to Owens who, along with Roz Temple, had to play a piano missing one of the F keys.)

REMEMBER: Jam sets return in March, starting at 1 pm.

A reminder that March 17 meeting with Chris Bradley's Traditional Jazz Band will be at the Danville Grange Hall (see directions on the back of the newsletter). Chris' group gave us a taste during the Showcase, so come out and support him and the club on Sunday.

Also, please remember to bring items for the raffle. That has become one of our more steady sources of income. And if you haven't been by the CD table in a while, have a chat with Carol and Jack Dutcher and see if there's anything you might not have in your collection yet.

Our grand experiment in the ongoing search to find another venue for the NOJCNC didn't work out as well as we'd hoped. We heard from a number of you that, while the Grange Hall has its upsides, overall it was too far for most of our regular members. So in April, we'll be back at Champa Restaurant in El Sobrante (actually San Pablo) to hear the great Zinfandel Stompers. These guys haven't been together a really long time, but all the members are seasoned and sensational.

Special thanks to Ned Poffinbarger for a generous donation to the Ed and Dottie Lawless foundation.
